Narrative Reporting

Valero maintains its stance on ensuring that no individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of their race, ethnic origin, religion or belief, colour, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, political affiliation or any other category prohibited by UK laws and regulations.

Valero continues to be a leader within the energy industry for transparency and gender-data reporting and recognises the value and benefits of diversity, fostering a culture of inclusion with a greater mission in mind and continues to be a diverse and equal opportunities employer in all aspects of employment.

The Company’s compensation programme across the UK supports fair treatment and equal pay, which are built on a foundation of market-competitive and performance-based pay along with ongoing reviews of pay practices and policies. Our compensation and benefits team oversee this process and administer all compensation actions along with guiding management decisions. The strategies and processes utilised are designed to ensure that pay decisions are based on an employee’s qualifications and performance with respect to job requirements and performance standards, regardless of an individual’s gender or any other characteristics protected by law.

The company provides family-friendly policies as well as support for females to undertake STEM careers at our Refinery to help attract and retain females into the business.
